5) Job Title 9: On-Air Talent

An ex-professional athlete was making on-air appearances on KDKA-FM's afternoon talk show as an independent contractor. Due to his unique skill set and the success of his afternoon feature, he was hired on full-time so that he could become a permanent fixture of the show.

- 6) Total # of Interviewees Referred: For the period from March 23, 2010, through March 22, 2011, this Employment Unit interviewed 62 interviewees for full-time job vacancies (not including vacancy (9)).

7) Supplemental Recruitment Measures.

1. Participation in Job Fairs

Point Park University's 2nd Annual Internship & Job Fair – 9/29/2010

The Employment Unit's Promotions Director and Assistant Events Coordinator, each of whom has substantial responsibility in the making of hiring decisions, attended the Point Park Internship & Job Fair in Pittsburgh, PA, on September 29, 2010 from 11am-3pm. The Employment Unit personnel attending the event provided information about the internship program within the promotions department and provided contact information for the news, programming and sales departments. They also passed out internship applications to qualified applicants. For those students searching for full- or part-time employment, the Employment Unit personnel attending the event provided descriptions of the available job openings and directed all interested applicants to go to www.cbsradio.com/careers to apply for any open positions.

Pittsburgh Radio Organization Broadcast Career Fair – 1/4/2011

The Employment Unit's General Sales Manager and three Local Sales Managers, each of whom has substantial responsibility in the making of hiring decisions, attended the annual Pittsburgh Radio Organization (PRO) Broadcast Career Fair at Duquesne University, Pittsburgh, PA, on January 4, 2011, from 3-6pm. The Employment Unit personnel attending the event met and spoke with numerous candidates about open positions in the sales department as well as other opportunities available in the Pittsburgh station Employment Unit. They invited all interested candidates to apply online at www.cbsradio.com/careers.

2. Participation in Career Events Sponsored by Educational Institutions

Robert Morris University's 2010 Creativity at Work Conference – 3/25/2010

The Employment Unit's Assistant Events Coordinator and Assistant Program Director/Afternoon On-Air Talent attended the 2010 Creativity at Work Conference at Robert Morris University, Moon Township, PA. The Assistant Events Coordinator served as a panelist on the Job & Internship Search Panel and the Assistant Program Director/Afternoon On-Air Talent served as a panelist on the Creative Careers Potpourri Panel. The two panel discussions were held the morning of March 25, 2010, beginning at 8:45 a.m., followed by networking and a lunch. At the event, the Employment Unit personnel spoke with Robert Morris University students about careers in broadcasting and answered questions about their own career paths.

Carnegie Mellon University/Heinz College Annual "Network Pittsburgh" Event – 2/4/2011

Each year, Network Pittsburgh brings more than 300 employers, alumni and students interested in Pittsburgh and the surrounding area together for an opportunity to network. This year, the August Wilson Center for African American Culture, situated in the cultural district in downtown Pittsburgh, was the venue for this event. Representatives from graduate and undergraduate career offices as well as the Carnegie Mellon Office of Alumni Relations were on-hand to answer questions regarding degree programs and to connect employers with job seekers. One of the Employment Unit's Local Sales Managers attended this event on behalf of the Employment Unit. The LSM spoke with many potential candidates about job openings at CBS Radio Pittsburgh and invited them to apply online at www.cbsradio.com/careers.

Mt. Lebanon School District Career Day – 11/12/2010

A Local Sales Manager from the Employment Unit attended the Mt. Lebanon School District Career Day on November 12, 2010 at Jefferson Middle School. Distinguished persons from the community were invited to speak to approximately 400 students about their chosen careers. Each representative gave a presentation to the students about the duties, educational requirements and salary range of his or her position. This event was set up like a job fair, so each person had a table where students could visit and speak to them personally after the presentation.

3. Internship Program

Ongoing

The Employment Unit has an internship program designed to assist members in the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment. Internships are offered in promotions, programming, sports and news.

Stations KDKA(AM), KDKA-FM, WBZZ(FM), WDSY-FM

The Employment Unit's Promotions department had twenty three interns during the reporting period. They were students at Indiana University of Pennsylvania, LaRoche College, Penn State University, Point Park University, University of Pittsburgh, West Virginia University, St. Vincent College, Slippery Rock University, Baldwin-Wallace College, Robert Morris University, Bethany College and Duquesne University. Promotions interns' primary responsibilities include: Helping promote the radio stations at remotes, fundraisers, and station promotional events; Assisting with equipment set-up and tear-down at promotional events; Interacting with clients, listeners and employees of various professional levels; Assisting with the research and preparation of all upcoming promotional events; General clerical duties and assisting in departments other than promotions when/if the opportunity arises.

The Employment Unit's Sales department had seven interns during the reporting period from the following schools: Seton Hill University, Clarion University, West Virginia University, The University of Pittsburgh, Chatham University, Duquesne University and Penn State University. The Sales Interns for the Employment Unit work closely with the Sales Assistants in assisting the Account Executives and Sales Managers with their daily radio sales needs. This includes everything from media kit and proposal design to writing commercial scripts and contacting potential clients by phone. They also attend sales meetings and on occasion, client presentations. They work in Power Point, Word and Excel.

The Programming department had 16 interns from the University of Pittsburgh, Point Park University, Duquesne University, Robert Morris University, Penn State and Clarion University. Interns in this department may be assigned to the following duties: Writing broadcast scripts, cutting up raw tape and network feeds, making "beat checks" of local emergency agencies, pursuing breaking news and other stories by phone, updating stories on the station web site, shadowing and assisting street reporters and other tasks as assigned.

4. Participate in General Outreach Efforts Using Job Banks or Internet Programs

Ongoing

CBS Radio Pittsburgh has made significant contributions to the CBS Radio career website (www.cbsradio.com) which contains information designed to inform the general public of the numerous and varied career opportunities available in the broadcasting industry and of the job skills necessary to compete for them. All of the Employment Unit's open positions have been posted at CBSRadio.com/careers. Listeners to the stations are also regularly directed to visit CBSRadio.com to view all available job opportunities with CBS Radio Pittsburgh.

Additionally, recruitment spots run regularly on each station, stating that, "All listeners are encouraged to visit CBSRadio.com for an online listing of job openings at all CBS Radio stations." The same spot also states, "We seek the help of local community organizations in referring qualified applicants to our radio stations. Community organizations that wish to receive our vacancy information should contact the station by calling (name of Market Controller)."
